UNIONISTS VICTORS.

Birmingham Backs Chamberlain.

All Seven of City's Protectionist Candidates for Parliament Win.

Election Refutes Contention That Fiscal Agitation is Dead for Years.

In Other Districts Liberal Tide is Still Strong—Balfour's Case Hopeless.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Sir A. Conan Doyle, who ran in the Unionist interest for Hawick, Roxburghshire, Scotland, has been defeated.

BIRMINGHAM (England) Jan. 17.—Birmingham today remained true to Joseph Chamberlain, electing all of his candidates in the seven divisions, and except in the case of Sir John Stowe, by large majorities. Sir John Stowe's defeat in the east division was expected by the Unionists themselves and hence his retention of the seat by a majority of only a few hundred is regarded as satisfactory. The Liberal had been optimistically expecting that the results throughout the country would affect Birmingham, but even the Liberal sweep was not able to overcome Mr. Chamberlain's great personal popularity.

Immense crowds stood for hours in City Hall square awaiting the result. When the figures were presented there was tremendous cheering, particularly among the students, who were expected to be present in large numbers. Mr. Chamberlain himself did not come to the City Hall tonight, but received the returns at his home. His majority was 500. Enthusiastic crowds were pending the streets tonight. Mr. Chamberlain tonight issued the following message to the electors: "Well done, Birmingham. My own people have justified my confidence. I am deeply grateful to all who have assisted in winning this great victory. We are seven."

AGITATION NOT KILLED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Even allowing that the Liberal candidates were not very strong, as the seats were practically uncontested at the last general election, and though the Liberal organization was not as good as in other parts of the country, the results at Birmingham are of the highest importance. They prove the groundlessness of the Liberal contention that the election has killed the fiscal agitation for a generation to come.

The outcome at Birmingham affords a striking contrast. While Mr. Balfour stands discredited as a leader, with his supporters all swallowed up and himself angrily criticized from his own side, Mr. Chamberlain issued from the contest with flying colors. His courage to a large extent justifies him to persevere in his agitation, and he is in a position to argue that it was Mr. Balfour's timidity which lost the campaign.

LIBERAL TIDE STILL STRONG.

Many of today's polls will not be declared until tomorrow, but those published tonight show that the Liberal tide still runs strong. London has gone distinctly Liberal, no less than twelve seats showing Liberal gains. While the total gain for the Liberals for today number twenty-two, the Unionists have made only one solitary gain, that of the seat of Sir John Stowe. The seat from the Liberals at Madras, Portsmouth, which had previously been represented by two Unionists, today elected two Liberals, and this despite the fact that another candidate, a Laborite, threatened to split the Liberal vote. The Laborite, however, came third, with a very large vote, the Unionists being at the bottom of the list.

The members already elected are distributed as follows: Liberals, 167; Unionists, 72; Laborites, 21; Nationalists, 10. Of the twenty-three London seats polled today, sixteen were won by the Liberals, twelve of them being net gains.

Among the striking personalities in today's election were Sydney C. Buxton, Postmaster-General, and Dr. Thomas James McNamara, the writer on educational subjects, who were elected by enormous majorities for the Liberal party. It is probable that the growth of the Labor party was largely the result of putting John Buxton in the Cabinet. He said he saw no reason why the moderates of either side should fear the Laborites in the new Parliament. He did not believe they would abuse their power, but on the contrary he thought they would become a source of strength.

SAID NICE THINGS OF HYDE.

Equitable Life Loaned Money to "Town Topics" Company and Also Ran Advertisement.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James W. Osborne proved by a record of mortgages at the Norman Hapgood hotel trial in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court late this afternoon that the Town Topics Company had secured a loan of $165,000 from the Equitable Life Assurance Society on unimproved property in Thirty-eight street between Eighth and Ninth avenues.

Osborne also tried to show by Justice Deuel that Town Topics had received $6000 from the Equitable for four advertisements which it published in the Spanish, Russian, German and French languages. Mr. Osborne read from Town Topics nice pieces about James Hazen Hyde that were printed about the time that the loan was made and the advertisements appeared. Justice Deuel said he did not know that Town Topics got $6000 for the advertisement.

"Did the pleasant little article which you printed about James Hazen Hyde have anything to do with the Equitable's investments in advertising space in your paper?"

"Not that I know of," answered Justice Deuel.

DOWIE LOSES CONTROL OF THE CITY'S FINANCES.

Appointment of Triumvirate With Great Ostentation Merely Cloaked Setback of the Religious Leader. He Has Squandered Money in the Most Profligate Manner, They Say.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Alexander Dowie has been permanently removed from financial control of Zion City industries, according to assurances given to big creditors by financial agents of the community. The appointment of a triumvirate, with great ostentation, it is now declared, merely cloaked Dowie's accession to the demands of Zion City and its creditors that all business affairs be taken from his hands, leaving him a religious leader only.

The awakening of the people of Zion came at last, according to one of the large creditors in Chicago today.

"They have been open in saying," he declared, "that they awoke too late, and found that in Dowie they had something in the nature of a cross between a 'white elephant' and the 'Old Man of the Sea' hitched onto them."

"Dowie has squandered money in a most profligate manner," say his creditors. "His trip round the world cost him $1,000,000. He drew on the treasury for it. The trip to New York cost half as much. It was given out that the followers paid their own expenses. This was hardly true. The recent trip to Mexico was another expensive luxury for the old man. He spent thousands there, and for all these expenditures all that Zion City has got out of it has been a few pale fireworks."

"We have been able to arrange for the payment of pressing debts," said Deacon Judd today, "and will be able to defer drastic action."

HELPED IMPROVE CHICAGO.

Death of Old Settler, William Dunne, Relative of "Dooley," Who Built Churches There.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Dunne, 81 years old, one of Chicago's oldest settlers, and a member of a family which has been prominently identified with the development of the Roman Catholic church in this city, is dead at his residence. He was born in Ireland, and came to Chicago when it was a mere village. He was a builder and contractor, and in 1844 he erected the Cathedral of St. Mary's. Later he built St. Patrick's Church, in which his brother, Rev. Dr. Dunne, was subsequently pastor.

Dunne was married in 1849 to Charlotte Nolan, and they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1894. Mr. and Mrs. Dunne in 1893 were awarded a gold medal at the Old Settlers' picnic as being the oldest surviving settlers of Chicago. One of the members of the Dunne family is Finley Peter Dunne. Dunne has one son and three nephews in the priesthood in Chicago and vicinity. One of his nieces is the mother superior of the Catholic sisterhood, and another nephew is Archbishop Riordan of San Francisco.

WALLOWED IN THE MUD.

Dr. J. M. Payne of Paducah, Victim of Novel Fraudulent Scheme Enforced by State Farm.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PADUCAH (Ky.) Jan. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because Dr. J. M. Payne had secured judgment against him for medical service, Albert Pittman, a farmer, held the physician up near Lancaster, compelling him to get out of his buggy, disrobe and then wallow in a mud hole for five minutes.

While in the mud hole, the doctor was compelled to sign a statement, to the effect that he had been falsely at the trial, and then threatened with instant death if he revealed what had occurred. Dr. Payne, after assuming his natural garb, plus the mud, proceeded to Lancaster, where he caused the arrest of Pittman.

The latter comes from a prominent family, while Payne is one of the leading physicians of Ballard county.

PITCHFORK TILLMAN VENTS MORE VENOM.

South Carolina Slander Monger a Tearful Spectacle in the Senate.

Uses Mrs. Minor Morris in Incident as Basis for Indecent Attack on the President and is Promptly Called Down by Senators Hale, Hopkins and Daniel—Abrupt Adjournment Caused by President Hater's Hysterics.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The recent forcible removal from the White House of Mrs. Minor Morris was made the subject of emphatic denunciation by Mr. Tillman in the Senate today. His remarks called out remonstrances from Messrs. Hale, Hopkins and Daniel and led to the very abrupt closing of the doors and the sudden adjournment of the Senate in the middle of the afternoon. The Mr. Tillman will be urged not to carry out his purpose. Prominent Senators on both sides said that the resolution would command few votes.

PHILIPPINE RESOLUTION.

The first matter of importance taken up was the resolution offered by Mr. Culberson relative to the ownership by Philippine officials of land in the Philippine Islands. The resolution was presented by Mr. Culberson in modified form today, and as modified was adopted. As passed it calls upon the Secretary of War to supply the Senate with information as to whether any member of the Philippine Commission was any officer of the army or navy of the United States or has any interest in any land in the islands. The Secretary is directed also to state where such land is situated, "particularly with reference to the location of proposed railroads in said islands."

The Philippine tariff bill was received from the House and referred to the Committee on Philippine Islands.

TILLMAN GETS BUSY.

Mr. Tillman was then recognized. He began by quoting extracts from the Monroe doctrine from the last annual message of the President. He laid special stress upon the President's declaration "that no just and orderly government has anything to fear from us."

"Is the converse true, that any unjust and disorderly government has something to fear from us?" Mr. Tillman asked, "because if it is, therein lies an immense amount of trouble for this country."

It meant, he said, that the President intended to set up a standard, and compel the South American nations to adhere to it.

Mr. Culberson interrupted Mr. Tillman to read an extract from a letter which he said had been written by Secretary Hay, in which the Secretary was reported to have said that the rejection of the Dominican treaty would work "no great disaster." His purpose, Mr. Culberson said, was to contrast the Secretary's utterance with that of the President.

ASSAILS THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. Tillman quoted the executive order of March 23, establishing a modus vivendi, and declared that there had been coercion in enforcing that order, and that "Morales and his junta of cut-throats had not accomplished their objects until compelled to do so by Mr. Dawson and his gunboats. He said that the island was practically blockaded by our gunboats, and that our efforts were directed largely in the interest of the 'Shylocks and sharks and other fellows who live by shaving paper.'"

He quoted from the Springfield Republican, which he characterized as a clean and careful newspaper, a history of Morales's career.

"An admirable picture," he exclaimed, "of the kind of a government our great and good President has taken under his wing—a government of cut-throats, back-stickers, assassins, debauchers and libertines, and everything awful that the English language may be used to describe."

MRS. MINOR MORRIS, the heroine of yesterday's explosion in the U. S. Senate.

Senator Tillman.

He said the President had transgressed the canons of a century in carrying into effect a treaty that had never been ratified.

"It used to be that the failure of the Senate to act on a treaty was sufficient," said the Senator, "but such is no longer the case. You've got to say 'No' in very loud terms to Theodore Roosevelt in order to get him to hear at all."

He said he had heard it stated that four more votes are needed to secure the ratification of the Dominican treaty and he supposed they were looking about for White House Democrats to help out, and he feared that a sufficient number might be secured by the use of patronage, "a pound or two of pork," to aid the other side in securing favorable action.

PRESIDENT AND PRESS.

In criticizing the President, Mr. Tillman said the press was being used in threatening Congress on matters of legislation or patronage in order that the President may have his way. The Senator compared the Executive with "Andrew Jackson or Napoleon Bonaparte or any other man who pushed things to the limit."

He wanted to ask what it is that emboldens the President to take the stand he has. Answering the question himself, Tillman said that the press has made the President what he is, and that it has been through that instrumentality that he has dared to "bestride the world like a Colossus."

He said that an instance of the President's use of newspaper men is had in his employment of Joseph R. Bishop as a "press agent" for the Panama Canal. He said that during the time Mr. Roosevelt's military record was being made the newspapers continually referred to "Col. Roosevelt here and Col. Roosevelt there, until he seemed to eclipse the regular army officers who carried the brunt of the battle."

PITCHFORK HYSTERICS.

The Senator said he appreciated the value of the President's service in the army, and he recognized his worth until he has been voted the most popular man in the United States, and would not detract one iota from the President's credit. All of this, Tillman said, showed that the President realized the power of the press, and he charged that the "Washington press has become colored and doctored in the interests of the administration. 'Secretary Loeb is the apothecary,' he said, 'and pills on Panama, pills on Roosevelt, pills on railroad rates and pills on everything pertaining to public affairs are administered in this way. The newspapers have been the funnel through which this quack physic has been sent abroad and when some newspaper man refuses to print that which the President wants, there is great wrath at the executive mansion.'

Illustrative of "some stories which crop out, over or through the bars," Mr. Tillman said that "the saddest and most pitiful example of anything that has ever been associated with the name of a President was the recent outrage on Mrs. Minor Morris at the White House."

He said that only for the transgression of some rule the woman sitting quietly in the office had been dragged rudely away, her clothes torn, an ear-ring torn out and thrust into a carriage and taken away.

TILLMAN CALLED DOWN.

At this point Mr. Hale interrupted Mr. Tillman to protest against the latter's representation concerning the Morris incident.

"I hope," he said deliberately, "that I may never figure in this body as a general apologist of the administration or of any one connected with it," and, continuing, said, "but I say to the Senator from South Carolina that he is making statements and assuming facts for which there is no warrant, and that he is making these most serious and defamatory charges against the Executive of this country, the President of all these United States, having nothing whatever that he adduces as proof."

"I must say to the Senator that I do not deem it seemly that here in the Senate he should take this occasion of discharging the personal feeling of ill-will he has against the President of the United States. It is not a spectacle that any of us can look upon with either satisfaction or toleration."

HE TRIES TO HEDGE.

The quiet that prevailed was almost oppressive, and it was none the less marked when Mr. Tillman rose to reply. He said:

"I have such great respect for the great ability, high character and patriotism of the Senator from Maine, and have had such intimate association with him during my service here, which is not half so long as his own, that he cannot say anything in the way of reprimand to cause me to lose my temper. I want to say to you, Sir, addressing 'Mr. Hale directly,' that I am not defaming Theodore Roosevelt, and I have not allowed my personal feelings, supposing I have any, to dictate one utterance of mine today. I want to say to you, Sir, that if you will offer a resolution appointing a committee of this body, composed of Republicans alone, to examine into the facts, I will give out the names of four witnesses as respectable as you or I, who will swear to the statement I have made as to what actually occurred."

ANTI'S REJOICE.

Fight Against Joint Statehood Won.

Insurgents Say With Aid of Democrats Defeat of the Bill is Certain.

They Count on Majority of at Least Thirty Against the Measure.

Delegate Mark Smith Gets Gay With Maine Man and Apologizes.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is great rejoicing among the joint Statehood "insurgents" over the result of the vote yesterday on the Philippine Tariff Bill. They assert that they will have the support of all Democrats which the opponents of the Philippine Tariff Bill did not have, and that they will defeat the bill by a majority of at least thirty. They say they will have the 137 Democratic votes to start with and at least seventy-one Republican votes, which will make the total vote stand: For the bill, 178, against the bill, 208.

The leaders of the revolt are open in their defiance of the President and the House leaders. They dare them to attempt to bring in their rule shutting off amendments, and say that if it is brought, it will be defeated. The administration is still fighting sturdily and charging that the milk in the cocoanut of the opposition is the question of tax evasion by the railroads and mines of New Mexico. They say that N. O. Murphy, former Governor of the Territory of Arizona, his brother Frank Murphy, Senator W. A. Clark of Montana, and other mine owners desire to defeat not only joint Statehood but all Statehood for Arizona, in order that they may enjoy practical immunity from taxation which would cease with the admission of the Territory as a State. It is also asserted that 500 miles of railroad are entirely exempt from taxation. It is also declared that mining stock is largely held in the House.

Former Gov. Murphy requests The Times to say for him that he was not rejected by the President for reappointment as Governor. "I resigned several months before my term expired," he said, "and I was not an applicant for any appointment because I was not a Rough Rider."

EXCITING ALTERCATION.

There was an exciting hearing before the Committee on Territories of the House today when the Anti-Statehood League of Arizona was given a hearing. Representative Powers of Maine asked so many questions of the members of the league about evasion of taxation, that Mark A. Smith, Delegate from Arizona, lost his temper and had an altercation with Mr. Powers. He subsequently apologized.

For two hours the committee and the delegation engaged in a "sparring contest," which culminated in the personal clash between Representative Powers and Delegate Smith. The break came while R. A. Morrison of Prescott, Ariz., was addressing the committee. Chairman Hamilton of Michigan asked Mr. Morrison many questions about unusual taxation of mines and railroads in Arizona, to which Mr. Smith objected. Mr. Powers began questioning Mr. Morrison as to the proportion of Mexican population in Arizona and New Mexico. Mr. Smith again objected. Mr. Powers resented the interruption and exclaimed:

"I understand fully the sensitiveness of this delegation concerning these questions, I know whom they represent and all about them."

"I have had enough of this and I denounce the charge as false," Mr. Smith retorted. "You may impugn the motives of others, but when you impugn my motives I shall resist."

Mr. Powers replied emphatically: "I shall ask all the questions I want to."

SMITH, HE APOLOGIZES.

The committee room was in an uproar by this time and after Chairman Hamilton called for order and asked the members to be more calm, Mr. Smith offered an apology, saying that perhaps he was mistaken, but Mr. Powers' questions struck him as though inspired by a desire for information.

On account of the frequent interruptions by the members of the committee and promptings and interruptions by members of the Arizona delegation, Mr. Morrison was unable to make an extended argument. (The feeling was so intense and the hearing so unsatisfactory that the committee decided that at the hearing to be held tomorrow morning all speakers shall be permitted to complete their arguments before they are subjected to questions by members of the committee.

The Arizonians at the hearing were Dwight B. Heard, former Governor of Arizona; Roy S. Goodrich, Gen. A. J. Sampson; C. O. Murphy, E. O. Neill, Phoenix; C. G. Randolph, A. J. Doran, Father Quastan, F. R. Stewart, Prescott; Rev. Harvey H. Shields, Bishop; A. J. Chandler, Mesa; J. J. Riggs, Los Angeles; Lee Crandall, Globe; George French, Nogales; W. S. Sturges, Pima county.

NO BREAK IN RANKS.
The Republican "insurgents" denied tonight there had been a break of any kind in their ranks. Speaker Cannon's lieutenants on the other hand asserted, with a great show of confidence, that the House organization had already won its victory and could muster at any time a sufficient number of votes to defeat a rule and pass the Hamilton State Bill. No intimation has been given, however, as to the particular day the bill will be reported. Chairman Hamilton will give no further assurance than that the bill will be reported "soon."

The organization leaders allege that the vote on the Philippine bill showed conclusively that the strength of the insurgent movement had been exaggerated. The insurgents laugh at this assertion. Babcock, the insurgent leader, says that four names have been added to his following since yesterday, one of whom was conspicuous as a debater and a national figure. He expected to get two additions tomorrow.

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS.
What are known as the "insurgents" are a most incongruous mixture. Babcock, the leader, is opposed to the bill because he does not believe that either New Mexico or Arizona should become a State, and that the jointure of the two does not improve the situation.

The temper of the insurgents cooled today, but their determination to hold on apparently was as resolute as before. For two or three days sensational rumors have been followed by hysterical statements in the Statehood fight. Investigation has exploded them and the members have concluded it is better to hold their tongues than be compelled to recant. Some of the "insurgents" today gooped with the Democrats from time to time, but no plan of action has been agreed upon.

SMITH MURRES THINGS.

The Arizona contingent is trying to make all the trouble it can. Delegate Smith wants to rise to a question of personal privilege in the House and demand an investigation. Arizona's weakness is the prominent part the railroads and mine owners have taken in opposition to joint Statehood. The charge that a lobby had been sent here was made in the newspapers long before the insurgent movement began to attract attention. Smith is a Democrat and his Democratic associates have persuaded him that an intertemporal speech by him would have a tendency to disorganize the Republican insurgents, and although gagged by his party associates as far as making a speech in the open House is concerned, Smith broke loose in the committee on Territories today.

MOORS ARE PRAYING AGAINST POWERS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ALGERIANS (Spain) Jan. 17.—The delegates of the Moroccan conference today took a day of leisure in order to enable the secretaries to get ready for their work, and indulged in private conversations among themselves, or spent the time in preparing with their junior colleagues for the discussion of the surveillance of contraband arrangements in Morocco, the first question to be discussed at the next meeting.

Ambassador White visited Gibraltar after his and Minister Cummins had gone over the political situation in Morocco regarding illicit trade in arms. When the conference shall agree on regulations for the punishment of foreigners engaged in smuggling arms into Morocco, most of the countries, including the United States, will have to legislate on the subject, as only Great Britain and Spain can by orders in council penalize their subjects abroad. While the talk among the Ambassadors is all of conciliation and harmony, Mohammed El Torres, the Moroccan Foreign Minister and head of the mission of Morocco, and Mohammed El Sultan, the Sultan's principal agent, do not believe that the conference will agree.

MOORISH OPINION.
Budget Meakin, an eminent authority of Morocco, had a prolonged conversation today with Mohammed El Torres, and repeated to the Associated Press the Moorish views as follows: "Mohammed El Torres will be a passive observer at the conference until it enters the last stage. If the powers do not agree, the conference will fall to pieces of itself without the Moors lifting a finger. If, however, the powers accept a general plan of control of Morocco, the Sultan cannot be asked to submit to anything that will insult the faith or provoke a rebellion among his own people. The powers will hesitate before facing an international military occupation of Morocco to impose a scheme of administration. The Moors expected some power to take their viewpoint even were a general agreement attained. They pray much of the time for the Almighty to protect his faithful, and they trust that the powers of evil will fall in confusion. The whole of the Islam world is somewhat excited over the fate of Morocco, as it is the last independent Muslim kingdom of Africa.

A MATTER OF ARMS.
"Mohammed El Torres expresses satisfaction at the fact that the conference will begin with a discussion of contraband arms, since this is one question in which Morocco is anxious to secure the intervention of the powers. The Moors contend that while the French and German governments nominally restrict contraband arms from entering Morocco, the great manufacturers of arms in France and Germany reap a harvest by the illicit introduction of arms, thus fomenting anarchy and insurrection. Therefore, Morocco is prepared to have the powers decisively stop this contraband trade.

On the other hand, some of the Ambassadors fear that the contraband question may precipitate a crisis over the main Franco-German controversy, as the surveillance of contraband arms involves the determination whether France alone shall patrol the coast, or whether the powers shall establish an international patrol.

"The determination of who shall establish the patrol may, therefore, bring up the principal Franco-German issue over France having a special position warranting her to direct the maintenance of order.

FALLIERES ELECTED FRANCE'S PRESIDENT.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

PARIS, Jan. 17.—Fallieres was elected President of France on the first ballot in the National Assembly today. The vote was: Fallieres, 449; Doumer, 271.

The National Assembly met at 1 o'clock in the Congressional Hall of the royal palace at Versailles. The Assembly consisted nominally of 561 Deputies and 300 Senators. Owing to deaths, illness and the passage of some of the Deputies to the Senate, leaving their seats vacant, the number present was decreased to about 480, making 430 votes necessary to elect.

The greatest interest was manifested in the proceedings, which were very prolonged. The members of the Assembly voted in alphabetical order. Those awaiting their turn discussed excitedly the prospects of their favorite. Although several candidates were mentioned for the Presidency, in succession to Loubet—including Fallieres, President of the Senate, Doumer, President of the Chamber of Deputies; Barrien, former Minister of Justice; and Leon Bourgeois, former Premier, no real contest was between Fallieres and Doumer.

Fallieres had the general support of the advanced Socialist and Radical groups, constituting the famous party which sustained the Combes ministry. Doumer, however, was a formidable opponent, whose election to the Presidency of the Chamber of Deputies last year, after breaking away from his former connection with the famous party previously referred to, gave the first blow to Combes. The old Liberal Republicans belonging to the Center and the Conservatives who then voted for Doumer still seemed inclined to continue their allegiance.

When the first figures were given out there was an outbreak of enthusiasm, which was renewed after the correct figures, giving Fallieres 449 and thus increasing his already clear majority, were announced. In all, 449 Assembly members were present. The final figures were: Fallieres, 449; Doumer, 271; scattering, 31. One voter abstained from voting. Fallieres returned to Paris from Versailles, escorted by a military guard of honor. He will take over his new duties February 18.

After spending a brief period at the official residence which he occupies as President of the Senate, Fallieres went to the Elysée Palace to meet Loubet, who warmly congratulated him.

The new President of France is a son of a magistrate's clerk and the grandson of a blacksmith. Clement Armand Fallieres was born November 8, 1841, at Mazin, Department of Lot-et-Garonne. He studied law and was called to the bar at Merac, of which town he became Mayor, retaining the office until 1876. In the following year, he was elected to the Chamber of Deputies as a Republican and affiliated himself with the Republican Left group in the chamber. He distinguished himself as an orator and was reelected in 1877 and 1878. In 1880, he was named under-secretary to the Minister of the Interior and held that position until 1881. He returned from the ministry at the time of the fall of the Jules Ferry Cabinet, but returned to power the following year and was made President of the Council and made an interim Minister of Foreign Affairs. Subsequently he was successively Minister of Public Instruction, Minister of the Interior and Minister of Justice. He was elected Senator in 1894, a position which he held since that time, and was elected to the Presidency of the Senate in 1899. He was re-elected in 1906 and again re-elected in 1912. He was again re-elected in 1918, and again re-elected in 1920. He was again re-elected in 1924, and again re-elected in 1928. He was again re-elected in 1932, and again re-elected in 1936. He was again re-elected in 1940, and again re-elected in 1944. He was again re-elected in 1948, and again re-elected in 1952. He was again re-elected in 1956, and again re-elected in 1960. He was again re-elected in 1964, and again re-elected in 1968. He was again re-elected in 1972, and again re-elected in 1976. He was again re-elected in 1980, and again re-elected in 1984. He was again re-elected in 1988, and again re-elected in 1992. He was again re-elected in 1996, and again re-elected in 2000. He was again re-elected in 2004, and again re-elected in 2008. He was again re-elected in 2012, and again re-elected in 2016. He was again re-elected in 2020, and again re-elected in 2024. He was again re-elected in 2028, and again re-elected in 2032. He was again re-elected in 2036, and again re-elected in 2040. He was again re-elected in 2044, and again re-elected in 2048. He was again re-elected in 2052, and again re-elected in 2056. He was again re-elected in 2060, and again re-elected in 2064. He was again re-elected in 2068, and again re-elected in 2072. He was again re-elected in 2076, and again re-elected in 2080. He was again re-elected in 2084, and again re-elected in 2088. He was again re-elected in 2092, and again re-elected in 2096. He was again re-elected in 2100, and again re-elected in 2104. He was again re-elected in 2108, and again re-elected in 2112. He was again re-elected in 2116, and again re-elected in 2120. He was again re-elected in 2124, and again re-elected in 2128. ## MARY TOLD FALSE TALE.

Police Find Her Kidnaping Story Unfounded.

Movements All Traced and no Cruelty There.

Another Wild Hoax That's Now Dispelled.

Investigation of the sensational kidnapping story told the police by 12-year-old Mary Boehme has been suddenly concluded.

The eight officers detailed by Captain of Police Broadhead to investigate the charges made by the girl, that she had been deliberately kept a prisoner by an unknown Italian, have been ordered to cease their efforts to locate a man answering the description given by the little miss.

It is now definitely known that the girl has deliberately falsified in every important detail connected with her absence of several days from home.

Little Mary Boehme presents an entirely new study in human nature for the local police department.

What is the ulterior motive, if any, which has resulted in precipitating the entire department into a state of chaos? Did the girl deliberately lie because she desired to shield some person or persons, and who are the men whose identity is unknown?

The officers who investigated the case had determined absolutely that the girl did not give an accurate reply to their queries on the vital points involved in the case.

Mary Boehme left her home last Thursday with only sufficient money to purchase three loaves of bread. She made the purchase. Then, instead of being immediately arrested, she was known to have visited three places with the purpose of disposing of the bread at less than the purchase price.

The girl failed to dispose of the bread. The proprietors of the three stores which she visited were suspicious, and refused to deal with her.

With the exception of a few hours every movement which the girl made from that time on has been carefully ascertained by the officers. There is, however, a bit of information lacking.

A medical examination of the girl disclosed conclusively the fact that she had been made to assault her, but she suffered no injuries. It is the belief of the police that she is purposely withholding the very information which would lead to the apprehension of the young men, for such it is thought her assailants must be.

ALL HER MOVEMENTS.

Thursday night Mary Boehme visited with a family on Mateo street from 8 until 10 o'clock. She was placed on a car which would take her to Tenish and Figueroa streets, at which place she claimed falsely that her parents resided. The girl never reached such a destination, and Friday, early in the morning, was seen in Boyle Heights.

She spent the greater part of the day in the home of Mrs. Frank Harris, No. 2455 Lanfranco street. She was treated royally and suffered absolutely no such misery as she would lead her parents and the police to believe was her experience.

A Boyle Heights family on Friday night gave her comfortable shelter. She did not sleep in a barn, nor on a stump, as Hearst's Morning Howl would have the public believe. Saturday and Sunday the girl continued to remain in this same vicinity, stopping for a few hours at the home of various families, and telling them all sorts of wild stories in explanation of her strange conduct.

Instead of being browbeaten by a brutal and armed Italian, Mary Boehme, during all this time, was playing with other little girls of her own age; playing games with dolls, eating delicacies, and having the best sort of a time, just like any other plain 12-year-old American girl.

Sunday night the girl was sheltered in a house near Turner and Figueroa streets. She remembers distinctly a fight which took place in that vicinity; remembers the appearance on the scene of a policeman, and then of following the patrol wagon with her eyes as it dashed off toward police headquarters.

NO BRUTALITY THERE.

Once again no brutality, no threats of death, no cruelties of any kind, but good, honest, warm meals, cheerful surroundings and pretty little attentions.

At 2 o'clock Monday morning Mary Boehme was wandering along East Twenty-second street. A milkman had deposited a bottle on a doorstep, and Mary picked it up. She ran up the steps, rang the bell, and after arousing the family, handed the bottle, giving as a reason her fear that the kitten might play with it and break the receptacle. At 4 o'clock the same morning she was found by an officer and taken home.

This is the summary of one connected closely with the investigation: "All this gush about the abuse of Mary Boehme is silly. The girl, to our knowledge, was treated with the greatest consideration at every place which she is known to have visited. I do not believe that her relations at home were agreeable, and the girl merely wandered away testing the hospitality of strangers. The girl was young and innocent, and we know it to be a fact that someone did attempt familiarity with her, but she suffered no ill consequences."

Despite the fact that active investigation into the case has ceased, if an Italian answering the description given by the girl is found he will be locked up on a charge of suspicion, but the police department does not believe such a person exists outside the imaginative brain of little Mary Boehme.

IN THE EDWARDS CASE.

FORMAL VERDICT OF SUICIDE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Jan. 17.—A formal verdict of suicide was given by Coroner Mix today in the case of Charles A. Edwards of New York, found dead in the Hutter homes at January 3. This confirms the tentative finding rendered last week.

Coroner Mix completely exonerates A. Maxey, Hutter, and his brother, Charles A. Hutter, from having any connection with the death of Edwards.

As State Attorney Williams accepts and fully agrees with the Coroner's findings, it is believed the case is closed.

GOT OLD MINER'S CASH.

KNOW HER SINK GIRLHOOD.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—Charged with having secured $11,000 in cash from Hugh H. Robinson, an old miner from Lake county, through fraudulent representations, A. G. Davis and his wife, Minnie Davis, were arrested at the Malrose House today and taken to the city prison. The whereabouts of the money is a mystery.

Robinson, who has made and lost fortunes in working California mines, says that he has known Mrs. Davis ever since she was a girl. When he came to San Francisco from Lake county on a visit about two months ago he met Mrs. Davis on the street and was induced to make his home at her house.

Recently, he accompanied her to Lake county on a visit, and on the return he alleges she secured his bank book. Mrs. Davis and her husband then moved and were found only after a search by the police, to whom Robinson had reported that the $11,000 which he had in the Humboldt Savings Bank had been drawn out without his knowledge.

MOTHER'S DEATH SUSPICIOUS, SON IN PRISON.

Philadelphia Police Say She Had Quarreled With Him Short Time Before Mrs. McMorrow Died—Letters from Noted Americans and Prominent Dons Found.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 17.—John McMorrow, son of Anita McMorrow, known as the Countess De Bettancourt, was today committed to prison to await the coroner's inquest into the death of his mother, Mrs. McMorrow died unexpectedly yesterday. The police say that a short time previous to her death she had quarreled with her son.

In conducting their investigation, the coroner's deputies found in the woman's room pawn tickets for over $50,000 worth of jewelry. In an old trunk was found the sum of $8000 and a number of letters from noted men in this country, from a former King of Spain and men prominent at the Spanish court.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Missouri Life Convicts Escape.

CARTHAGE (Mo.) Jan. 17.—John Franklin and Teddy Daly, life convicts in the Missouri penitentiary, escaped here Monday to testify against Estill H. Butler, alias "Foot and a Half," on the charge of murdering Policeman Claude Bryce in Joplin, where their escape today. The men were in custody of Deputy Sheriff Marquise and were being transferred from Joplin, where the Butler trial is in progress, to the County Jail in this city.

Delaware Mob Threatens Negro.

MILFORD (Del.) Jan. 17.—Frederick Groves, the negro who was arrested yesterday for assaulting Miss Flora Boone, a school teacher, was removed to the Dover jail today to prevent further attempts at lynching. A mob that last night tried to take Groves from the lockup here remained about the building until nearly 3 o'clock this morning. After being placed in jail, the negro made a confession. He said he had been drinking during the day and had no recollection of a struggle with the young woman.

Marriage Disapproved; Die Together.

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—The bodies of a young man and a young woman were found today in a room in the St. James Hotel, where they had been killed by a bullet fired into the room. The revolver was lying on the bed. The couple came to the hotel last night and immediately retired. The body of the man was identified as that of Frank Kouba, of Algonquin, Ill. Friends of Kouba declared that the woman was his wife, to whom he had been married but a short time. His relatives did not approve of the marriage.

Murder Charge Placed Against Patient.

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Lucille McLeod, who is supposed to have killed William Niemann, while in a room at the Empire Hotel, December 13, and then shot herself, was taken from the Chicago Emergency Hospital to her home last night. Before her removal, a murder charge was placed against her name and that of her father, P. J. McLeod, and a friend had signed bonds of $20,000 for her appearance at the inquest over Niemann's body, to be held January 27. The physicians at the hospital said Miss McLeod's wounds may yet prove fatal.

"CONFESSION" WAS BIG FAKE.

CAREY NOT WANTED IN EAST FOR MURDER OF WOMAN.

Man Arrested Here as Vagrant, Who Claimed to be Murderer of Allegheny Woman, Believed Irresponsible for Lurid Tales, and May be Released.

The "confession" of H. J. Carey, a vagrant now a prisoner in the City Jail, to the effect that he was the murderer of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Teresa Swinehart, of Allegheny, Pa., is believed to be a huge fake.

Carey has told such conflicting stories and has shown such an absolute ignorance of affairs and places at Allegheny and Pittsburgh, that it simply strengthens the belief of the officers here that he is a faker, or else the victim of drugs to which he is addicted.

During the ride of Carey to the Police Station he kept up an unintelligible muttering, but later made his alleged confession. Later he made the claim that he had come to Los Angeles from the Naples asylum, and at another time he stated to a newspaper reporter that he had come from Sacramento, where he had been employed as a watchmaker by Zemansky Brothers. His jewelry tools are now at the property room of the City Jail.

Dispatches received from Pittsburgh last night state that the death of Mrs. Swinehart occurred in 1897, and that the particulars do not correspond at all with the alleged facts given by Carey. Neither the eastern officers nor the Los Angeles police believe the man has been telling the truth. Carey will probably be discharged, or else serve a sentence as a vagrant.

SCHOOL FOR YUMA DAM.

Branch of the Yuma Establishment to be Installed There—Mixing of Laborers.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

LAGUNA DAM (Yuma, Ariz.) Jan. 16.—So many families have come to live here since the work on the dam was begun, that it has been decided to temporarily establish a branch of the Yuma school at this place. This will afford educational opportunities to the fifty or more children of school age now residing on the grounds. A mis-missionary from Yuma proposes to hold religious services on Sunday for Indians in the afternoon and for other residents in the evening.

In the past week more night work has been resumed. Both foreman and unskilled laborers dislike to be detailed for duty on the night shift, which is quite cold in the valley at present during the night time, although the days are warm and very pleasant. The unskilled work, moreover, does not appeal favorably to many men. It is necessary, however, if more rapid progress is to be made.

It is reported that a much larger dredge than the one at present in use is to be installed as soon as possible, authority having been recently granted for it by the New York office of J. G. White & Co.

It appears to be the policy of the present manager of the Laguna Dam contract work to endeavor to secure as large a variety of classes of laborers as possible and to mix Mexican, Indian, American, whites and foreign white labor so far as may be found practicable in the organization of the various gangs on the different parts of the works. By this method it is presumed that there will be less head-on competition and less opportunity for disturbing elements to create discord.

From New York, Whitehead Reid, American Ambassador to Great Britain, sailed yesterday for Liverpool.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize the value which is taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the poisons and impurities which are present in the stomach and intestine and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating food and food odors, and vegetables.

Charcoal effectually cleanses and improves the complexion; it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, throat and chest; also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

erty. H. P. ERNST, sole agent, room 313, Tajo Bldg., corner First and Broadway.

FOR SALE—
53 1/2 FOOT FOR WASHINGTON AND GRIFFITH.
Owing to the fact that the owner wants to go East immediately, I am enabled to offer the 5 room house and lot at 537 E. Washington (50 feet west of Griffith) for $1250, half cash.
The house is modern, easily worth $1250, and will rent for $125.00, giving an income of 7 per cent. without further improvement.
The lot is 50x120, and at above price the land surveys just $2.00 foot. 10 to 15 feet vacant lot nearly opposite, the only one in the block to be sold at $25 a foot, and the vacant corner diagonally opposite is over $100 a foot.
Owing to the little vacancy of Griffith the lot I offer is almost equivalent to a corner, and is now thoroughly ripe for a business improvement. At an additional expense of about $2000, the house could be improved back and two stores built on front.
The whole would easily rent for $60. Thus we have:
Original cost ..... $1250
Now Improvement ..... 200
Total cost ..... 1450
Annual income ..... 125
Or about THIRTYEEN PER CENT.
I think you'll find it pretty hard to find that, especially on one of the best and most rapidly growing business streets of this city.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Ah There!

Ah Tim. Quong Wa, Ah Long, Ah Lue and Wong Tuen were arrested last night in Ferguson alley on a charge of maintaining a fan-tan game. They furnished $50 each, and will appear in court today.

Schoolmasters' Club.

The meeting of the Schoolmasters' Club, which was to have been held tomorrow evening at the home of J. B. Millard, No. 428 South Alvarado street, has been postponed until the Friday following that it may not conflict with the State Conference of Charities and Corrections.

Credit Men.

The annual meeting of the Los Angeles Credit Men's Association will be held at 7 o'clock this evening at the Shanghai Chop Suey Cafe, No. 414 South Spring street. Dinner will be served, after which the reports of the committees will be read and officers will be elected.

Art Mass Meeting.

The mass meeting in the interest of the permanent art gallery will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the new Ebell Club building, under the leadership of the president of the board of directors, Mrs. W. H. Housh. A number of speakers who will present the cause are Bishop Conner, Bishop T. Johnson and Rabbi Hecht. Other speakers will be heard, and a great meeting is anticipated.

Old Site May Be Sold.

The Senate Committee on Public Buildings yesterday made a favorable report on the bill providing for the sale of the Federal building site on South Main street in Los Angeles, and providing for the erection of a new building at a cost of not to exceed the proceeds of the sale, together with the appropriation already made for this purpose.

Tuberculosis Cure.

A month ago The Times announced that Dr. L. F. Preston, Coulter Block, would treat free with a virus that had discovered, a certain number of tuberculous patients. In order to test the new cure, several persons, in whose system a microscopist had found the tubercle bacilli, availed themselves of the doctor's invitation and they state to The Times that they have derived great benefit from it.

Colored Baptists Meet.

The Southern District Convention of the Northern Baptist Association (colored) is holding its first quarterly meeting at the Olivet Baptist Church at Santa Fe avenue and Alma street. The sessions of that and allied organizations will continue during the day and conclude this evening. Among the delegates attending are Rev. J. Morgan, the moderator of the association; Dr. Gordon, Rev. Lambert and Rev. Bushnell.

Two Deductions.

Postmaster Flint, who is also Grand Master of the Free and Accepted Masons, will officiate at two dedications in the near future. At 2 o'clock Saturday he will lay the corner-stone of the new public school building at Montecito. The services will be under the auspices of the Gardens Lodge, F. and A. M., and the Grand Lodge will have charge of the programme. The Masonic Temple at Ocean Park is nearly completed, and will be dedicated February 1, at 7 p.m. Public ceremonies are to be conducted by the Grand Lodge and Grand Master Flint will officiate.

Too Much Gas.

A good-looking young man was taken to the Receiving Hospital yesterday from the Somerset House on East Fifth street, unconscious from inhaling illuminating gas. His name, as indicated from letters on his coat, was found in his luggage, in Pearl Knight of Paris, Ill. He had been at the Somerset House one day, but he arrived in the city about a month ago. He had been drinking when he went to the hotel, and when he was found lying in his room with the gas let wide open, a bottle half full of whiskey was found. Whether he attempted suicide or blew out the gas in a fit of drunkenness, cannot be stated. He is in a bad way, but will likely recover.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 17.—According to a statement made today by Frank P. Hayes, of the firm of Little & Hayes, financial agents for the Tennyson Shoe Company, inquiry into the affairs of the Tennyson company has revealed discrepancies of $150,000, due, it is believed, to faulty bookkeeping. John J. Tennyson, president of the company, has tendered his resignation, and his son, John H. Tennyson, Jr., secretary of the company, has resigned.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 17.—The run started yesterday on the Washington National Bank of Pittsburgh had practically ceased today and the deposits far exceeded the amount withdrawn. Nothing is known regarding the whereabouts of Cashier Armstrong, who disappeared mysteriously over three weeks ago and whose accounts are said to be absolutely correct.

HIS GOOD-NATURED WAY.

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) Jan. 17.—The trial of Midshipman Meriwether, Jr., on the charge of having been remanded today. A number of members of the fourth class testified that Meriwether had treated them with consideration, and that he acted toward them in a friendly and good-natured manner. It was made clear by the line adopted by the defense that Meriwether is anxious to relieve his name from the opprobrium of cruelty.

PERFECTION IN TALKING MACHINES

Those who have never heard a genuine Victor may confuse it in their minds with the numerous imitations with which the market is flooded. These resemble the Victor about as much as a street organ resembles a symphony orchestra. If you will place a genuine Victor in an adjoining room you cannot tell the records from the originals.

The Victor is the very apex of Talking Machine perfection—the greatest musical instrument in the world.

Victors range in price from $17.50 to $105. We recommend those with the tapering arms.

Free Music Lessons

For a limited time we will give with every violin, mandolin or guitar purchase a free course of lessons at The Conservatory of Music of Los Angeles. The only condition is that you buy an instrument worth $15 or more.

Swellest of Local Catdom in Its First Show.

Even a Tame "Bob" There
Full of Dignity.

Purring. Silky-furred Pets
Out for Prizes.

The day before the cat show, the feline aristocracy of Los Angeles was assembling in the bowling alley of the Chutes. Great, fluffy Angoras with long hair that would shame the very snow itself for whiteness, black beauties with orange eyes and proud mien, coy missies which looked out from their cages with engaging shyness, petted

Prince Charming
Early arrivals at the catdom society function.

darlings that eat only of cream and beefsteak, and every variety of pussy, even to the terror of the woods, the wildest, Bengal, with the lithe grace and tread of the tiger.

Indeed, the cats were going some yesterday, and very few complained of their strange quarters and many spectators, though they were exceedingly nervous, as high-bred people frequently are when appearing for display.

The cat show, which will open today, is the first in Southern California, and the majority of the cats entered are in the novice class, though that did not depress their spirits in the least, for they are pedigreed, every one, and some of the grandfathers have been taken as many as six or seven silver cups apiece.

A few of the cats, especially some from the kennel of the president of the Cat Club, Mrs. Gorton, have won honors in the shows in Chicago.

Among the early arrivals was one of the haughtiest of aristocrats, King Cole, belonging to Mrs. M. E. Goodrich of Westlake avenue. Black as the night, with magnificent length of body and feline development, despising all food save cream and beefsteak, he is a truly impressive personage in the royal personage is truly impressive when he turns the light of his orange eyes upon you. They just match the orange bow his mistress has adorned him with, and he is to have an orange pillow to lie on. He is a perfect demon in disposition to everybody but to me," said Mrs. Goodrich, with a proud look of possession.

Prince Charming is a different sort. Even the camera could not ruffle his placid spirits. Possibly he is so beautiful that it makes him content. A glorious angora white he is, and his eyes are as blue as the California sky. Oh, he is very much worth while. He is only a year old, and may grow larger; he cannot grow more beautiful. Mrs. E. A. Wright owns him. Prince Charming is accomplished, too. He plays polo with walnuts. He is a grandson of the celebrated Paris, whence came his beauty.

Among the kittens (but you would have known these high-bred pussies for kittens, they are so large and handsome) is a chinchilla, who came from the kennels of Mrs. Gorton. Mrs. George C. Johnson of Pasadena avenue brought several of her treasures among the first, Gladys and Prince II are brothers, while Angoras, ones with blue eyes and the other with amber, and oh, such pretty creatures! Another cat beauty belonging to Mrs. Johnson is Silverlips, seven months old, his fur having a silver tinge. Silverlips is one cut well supplied with grandfathers. He is Scotch in the main, for his immediate grandfather was Angus, winner of seven silver cups, and the property of F. R. Story of Chicago. His great-grandfather was the great champion, Hamish, who won eight silver cups in London and Chicago.

The blue angora, Major, is of the same ancestry and his mother was from the kennels of the woman in San Francisco who left a fortune for the support of fine felines.

Did you know that Manx cats have no tails? They look as though they have an interesting history, but would not deign to tell any one about the way the whole race of Manx cats lost their tails.

Tom and Jerry are Manx cats who came early yesterday so as not to miss anything. They are trick cats and can do a number of clever stunts. Their father was Black Prince and their mother is still living. Her name is Toulouse. These black boys belong to Miss Adeline Chandler. Jerry can do the highest jump of any cat in Los Angeles.

The magnificent wild cat, Bengal, is in a class all by himself. He seems to complete for piquancy and is there for people to have the privilege of looking at him. In seeing him one is tempted to transmute an old saying: "A king may look upon a cat." Instead of "A king may look upon a cat."

Mrs. H. A. Stearns owns this bob cat. He was reared in captivity and is quite a pet in the household. Live guinea pigs and an occasional chicken furnish him with dainties, while plain meat is his steady diet. He was accompanied by a guinea pig when he arrived at the Chutes, his way of carrying supplies. His mistress walks about with him, keeping tab on his movements with a slender chain.

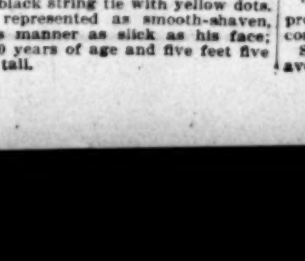

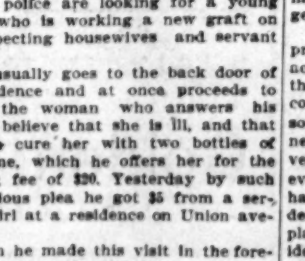

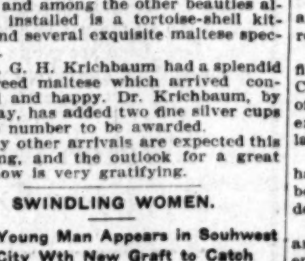

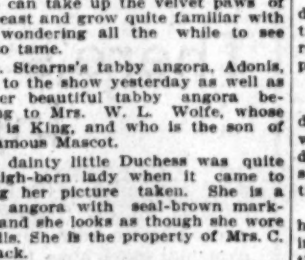

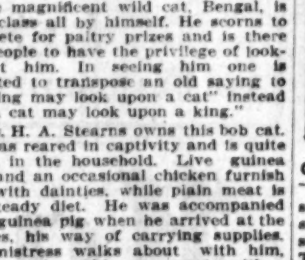

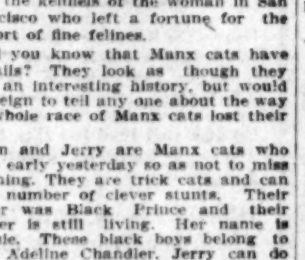

One can take up the velvet paw of this beast and grow quite familiar with him, wondering all the while to see him so tame.

Mrs. Stearns's tabby angora, Adonis, came to the show yesterday as well as another beautiful tabby angora belonging to Mrs. W. L. Wolfe, whose name is King, and who is the son of the famous Manx cat.

A lovely silver-gray angora is Wynwyn, belonging to Mrs. Henry Stanley Bent, and among the other beauties already installed is a tortoise-shell kitten, and several exquisite maltese specimens.

Mrs. G. H. Krichbaum had a splendid half-bred maltese which arrived contented and happy. Dr. Krichbaum, by the way, has added two fine silver cups to the number to be awarded.

Many other arrivals are expected this morning, and the outlook for a great cat show is very gratifying.

GREAT DEPOT SITE SETTLED.

Half-Million-Dollar Station to Displace Arcade.

Southern Pacific and the Salt
Lake Together.

Large Freight Improvements
for North End.

On the present site of the Arcade station within thirty days the Southern Pacific will begin building a new $500,000 union passenger depot.

Such was the decision announced yesterday through the final dictum of Julius Kruttschnitt in Chicago, after officials of the system had weighed in the balance for weeks the comparative advantages of the Arcade and San Fernando street sites as the best location for the new station.

Even to prominent officers of the Harriman system the final decision in favor of the Arcade site comes as a great surprise, since not later than three weeks ago a high official of the road advised The Times that the new structure would surely be erected on the "north site," as its ideal facilities for the entrance of through trains north and south, and its accessibility to the heart of the business district of the city made it the natural site for the new passenger station.

But the final decision of the high authorities in Chicago in favor of the Arcade site for the passenger station leaves the north site free for the contemplated extensive developments in the freight terminal yardage and warehousing facilities of the road.

And so ends a long-debated question extending over weeks and months, and at all times as uncertain of its result with them as with the interested public, marking a conclusion arrived at only after plans for stations to occupy either of the two mooted sites had actually been drafted and submitted for the inspection and approval of the general officers.

FINEST WEST OF CHICAGO.
Of mission style throughout, it will be by far the finest, most elegantly appointed and costly of any passenger depot west of Chicago.

Convenient in every detail and department, it will be used jointly by the Southern Pacific and Salt Lake railroads for their Los Angeles passenger terminals.

Almost half a mile in extreme length, the new depot will front for more than 2000 feet on Central avenue.

It will extend from Third street to a point below Seventh street.

Seven passenger tracks will afford ample train accommodation for the local and through passenger traffic of both roads.

The old-fashioned high-arched train shed will be abandoned in the new structure, and separate, individual sheds will be erected between tracks. There will be a special baggage track and yard for dray vans.

Ingress and egress will be by half a dozen handsome ornately-arched entrances, but the main entrance will be relatively in the same position as the present entrance to the old Arcade.

TEMPORARY WORK TODAY.
Today workmen of the construction department of the Southern Pacific will begin building a temporary frame depot between Third and Fourth streets on Alameda to be used until the completion of the new station.

The demolishing of the ancient, time-honored Arcade depot, long a landmark in Los Angeles, will be begun probably the first of next week, and building of the new depot will be pushed accordingly, but will allow for the contemplated structure to secure as nearly an ideal station as operating practice and experience and engineering cunning could devise.

"As the result, I can confidently predict that no one will have cause for complaint."

Sitting fifty feet back from Central avenue, the approaches to the station will be paved, and set with sub-tropical plants and flowers.

The entire lower floor will be devoted exclusively to passengers and baggage, and the upper floor to the division headquarters. Below there will be handsomely fitted-up ticket offices, spacious waiting rooms, rest rooms for women, smoking rooms for men, barber shops, a restaurant and cafe, and a large and well-equipped information bureau.

THOUSAND DOLLAR STEAL.
Articles That are of Value are Taken in Shopping Bag Left in Westlake Park.

Mrs. G. C. Hunt, of No. 1247 Ingraham street, has requested the assistance of the police in her efforts to recover a shopping bag containing much valuable property which she lost Tuesday afternoon at Westlake Park and of which not the slightest trace has been found.

The person who found it unquestionably knows to whom it belongs but the offer of reward, and no questions asked, has not induced that person to restore it to its owner. If the finder is discovered, a successful prosecution on a charge of grand larceny would be possible, the law providing that the keeping of property in such circumstances is the same as if it had been stolen.

There is, however, no intention to prosecute the finder and if the property is returned a liberal reward will be paid.

Mrs. Hunt went alone to the park Tuesday afternoon, her home being only a short distance away. She carried with her a brown shopping bag, gold mounted, containing several diamond rings and rings set with other precious stones. The bag also contained a number of calling cards, a pass-book of the Pasadena National Bank, several checks and a comparatively small sum of money.

She left the bag in the ladies' retiring-room near the park band-stand and did not think about it again for more than an hour. When she returned to look for it, the bag was gone. She made diligent inquiry at the park but could find no person who had seen her property. Then she reported the matter to the police whose search has been unsuccessful. The value of the property lost by Mrs. Hunt is more than $1000.

District Attorney Takes Hold and Secures Evidence Against Road Joints.

A new hand has been dealt in the war over the tough road houses. The District Attorney has "sat in" with vigor and has secured evidence against the "road joints."

That is the true "inwardness" of the recent move of the Supervisors in citing the proprietors of the Canary Cottage and Smith's Suburban Hotel to appear Monday and show cause why they should not lose their licenses.

After the repeated exposures in The Times, the Supervisors whined and dillydallied; they couldn't get evidence. They referred it to the Sheriff, he said he couldn't get evidence because the Supervisors had given warning. His method of getting evidence was to go round in a hack with two newspaper reporters.

Everything else having failed, Supervisor Brady appealed to the District Attorney. Capt. Fredericks has "got action." He sent secret service men and got the evidence—evidence enough to take their licenses.

BULLET NEAR TO SLEEPERS.

Mysterious Shot Fired Into

Has Neighborhood Row
Aught to Do With It?

Nearly a Midnight Tragedy
Stirs Sunnyside.

Who fired the shot that came within a few feet of killing a sleeping inmate of the home of J. E. Metzger, in the little suburb of Sunnyside, yesterday morning between midnight and 1 o'clock? Was deliberate murder intended, or was it a possible accident? The District Attorney's office, to which complaint was made yesterday, would like these questions answered.

Articles That are of Value are Taken in Shopping Bag Left in Westlake Park.

Mrs. G. C. Hunt, of No. 1247 Ingraham street, has requested the assistance of the police in her efforts to recover a shopping bag containing much valuable property which she lost Tuesday afternoon at Westlake Park and of which not the slightest trace has been found.

The person who found it unquestionably knows to whom it belongs but the offer of reward, and no questions asked, has not induced that person to restore it to its owner. If the finder is discovered, a successful prosecution on a charge of grand larceny would be possible, the law providing that the keeping of property in such circumstances is the same as if it had been stolen.

There is, however, no intention to prosecute the finder and if the property is returned a liberal reward will be paid.

Mrs. Hunt went alone to the park Tuesday afternoon, her home being only a short distance away. She carried with her a brown shopping bag, gold mounted, containing several diamond rings and rings set with other precious stones. The bag also contained a number of calling cards, a pass-book of the Pasadena National Bank, several checks and a comparatively small sum of money.

She left the bag in the ladies' retiring-room near the park band-stand and did not think about it again for more than an hour. When she returned to look for it, the bag was gone. She made diligent inquiry at the park but could find no person who had seen her property. Then she reported the matter to the police whose search has been unsuccessful. The value of the property lost by Mrs. Hunt is more than $1000.

District Attorney Takes Hold and Secures Evidence Against Road Joints.

A new hand has been dealt in the war over the tough road houses. The District Attorney has "sat in" with vigor and has secured evidence against the "road joints."

That is the true "inwardness" of the recent move of the Supervisors in citing the proprietors of the Canary Cottage and Smith's Suburban Hotel to appear Monday and show cause why they should not lose their licenses.

After the repeated exposures in The Times, the Supervisors whined and dillydallied; they couldn't get evidence. They referred it to the Sheriff, he said he couldn't get evidence because the Supervisors had given warning. His method of getting evidence was to go round in a hack with two newspaper reporters.

Everything else having failed, Supervisor Brady appealed to the District Attorney. Capt. Fredericks has "got action." He sent secret service men and got the evidence—evidence enough to take their licenses.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.
More than $100,000 water bond money is fastened by the deadlock over the Board of Public Works. Money to take up the last options was advanced by the Water Board.

Spike Harriman yesterday filed with the Outfall Sewer Committee an affidavit signed by three union bricklayers containing allegations of some trivial irregularities in the construction work on the big conduit. The committee reported that it has examined the sewer and has found no material defects.

A "poll" of the conduit district by police officers shows that there are but few violations of the conduit ordinance. The complicated litigation over the La Fortuna mines in Sinaloa, Mex., was decided yesterday by Judge Bordwell, who declares that title to the property lies in "Don Jose" Wilson, the original owner.

D. W. Helm, defendant in the Jap murder trial, yesterday, in his defense, gave his version of the killing of a laborer who was caught in the act of stealing fruit.

AT THE CITY HALL.
BOND MONEY IN LEGAL TANGLE.
CITY HALL DEADLOCK AFFECTS OWENS RIVER FUNDS.

Water Board Advances Coin to Take up Options Now Expiring, but Notifies Council That It Will Not Negotiate a New Loan—Crisis in Board of Public Works Controversy.

The deadlock between the Mayor and the Council over the appointment of a board of public works has fastened in more than $100,000 of water bond money.

City Auditor Schwabe has declined to audit demands passed by the Council on the water bond fund until he receives a written opinion from the City Attorney that such demands are legal.

Last week the Water Board advanced $2500 to close options on land in the Owens Valley. Notice was yesterday served on the Council and the City Attorney that the board will not loan any more money.

The situation is apparently approaching a crisis. Options are falling due on Owens River lands; hundreds of thousands of dollars of bond money lie in the city vaults but not one dollar can be expended until the City Attorney decides that the Council can assume the functions of the board of public works, or until a board of public works is organized.

City Attorney Mathews has been engaged in court for the last few days trying the San Fernando Valley water case. He has not been able to take the time from that to study the legal possibilities growing out of the present deadlock. He advised that the money borrowed last week from the water department.

City Auditor Schwabe says that he has adopted the same course in this instance that he takes whenever a demand on which a question of legality has been raised is presented to his department. If the City Attorney will advise him that the demand is legal he is ready to pass it along to the City Treasurer with the proper credentials.

Comptroller Mathews, who is going slow, "I believe that we are legally empowered to handle that bond money until the board of public works is organized," said a legislator last night. "But I have no desire to pass demands if the people can come back on us later for payment from our own pockets. I don't want any bills for a million and a half dollars presented to me."

The legal point involved grows out of the fact that the charter provides that the terms of the commissions of public works shall commence January 1, 1934. The State law stipulates that where a municipality is a party to a bond of public works bond money for public improvements can be expended only by that board.

Assistant City Attorney Goudge is now in the Owens Valley closing options on water-bearing land. The next options fall due about February 1. If the City Attorney should decide that the Council has lost jurisdiction over the bond money the Mayor and the Council will have to do some tailoring to get together on the appointment of three commissioners, the city loss to the Owens River.

MOUNTAIN TO MOUSE.
ONLY SPIKE HARRIMAN.

Spike Harriman, Police Court attorney and labor-union sympathizer, yesterday afternoon appeared before the committee of experts appointed to examine the construction work on the outfall sewer to unfold the tale of the awful depravity of the City Engineer and of the bun work of the outfall sewer contractor.

The evidence he laid before the committee consisted of an alleged affidavit purported to be signed by three union bricklayers who had been acting as spies on the outfall. They are O. Hiltchcock, Robert Macy and Joe Rathbun.

Their original allegation that the city has been bled out of $50,000 and stands to lose much more because the sewer is completed is reduced to an assertion that the contractors have been using fifty brick to each thousand and supplied more than are necessary.

The city furnishes the brick and they figure that this is where the city loses.

Chairman Koebig of the committee of experts told the union parasites that the committee has made a careful examination of the sewer and has failed to find any material defects in the construction work.

He asked the union attorney to select a man to go along with the committee Saturday afternoon and point out the alleged weak spots.

Spike Harriman's recital of the alleged defects in the sewer is the subject of petty details which the union spies reported. They are so trivial that the committee of experts considered for a time paying no further attention to them. To remove any ground that the agitators might have for complaint that their charges were not investigated, the experts agreed to go over the sewer with the spies.

Four bricklayers have been discharged by foremen on the work because they could not, or would not, lay brick satisfactorily. Two of these now want to call attention to the bun work they did before they were detected, in order that the blame may attach to the contractors.

When asked by Chairman Koebig whether he desired to make a reply to the trade of Spike Harriman, City Engineer Stafford replied:

"The sewer is there to speak for itself. I might talk myself black in the face and it would make it neither better nor worse. I do down and dig into it. Take these men along and let them point out what they can. I am willing to abide by their decision."

A civil engineer who last night read the charges said: "They are so trivial that I cannot understand why the committee pays any attention to them. If there is nothing more wrong with the sewer than that you have one of the best pieces of public work ever done in this country."

"Those allegations, if true, only mean that a fraction more cement and concrete has been used than called for in the specifications and less brick. I am of the opinion that if the specifications called for more cement than they do the sewer would be better for it."

FEW VIOLATIONS.
MOST WIRES UNDERGROUND.

Investigation of conditions in the conduit district reveals that there are comparatively few violations of the ordinance requiring wires to be placed underground. Most of the poles objected to are either street lighting masts or those used by the street railways and not affected by the ordinance.

Officials of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company assert that the corporation has not a single pole in the conduit district contrary to ordinance. The Gas and Electric Company is the only corporation which removed all its poles from the Adams and Figueroa street district.

It is the telephone companies that are the chief offenders. In a number of instances the poles of these companies have been left standing at the urgent request of property holders themselves. There are portions of the conduit district where customers are too few and far between to make it a profitable enterprise for the telephone companies to lay underground wires. To enforce the ordinance would mean to cut off the telephone service, and to this the property owners on the streets strongly object.

There are, however, a few flagrant violations of the ordinance. The refusal of the City Attorney is training the guns of the legal department.

Deputy Street Superintendent Laws yesterday went to City Prosecutor Frederickson for advice as to what course is expected from the street department. He was advised to do nothing until the police have completed their "poll" of the conduit district.

When the list of violations is complete, notices will be sent to the corporations affected to remove the offending poles. If the notices are not heeded the Street Department may be called upon to do a little wood cutting.

Mayor McAlister's political opponents have been unkind enough to hint darkly that the Chief Executive is doing colonial politics. When George Washington received a little hint that he was being overthrown, he took a whack at the telephone poles.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.
"LA FORTUNA" CASE SETTLED.

"DON JOSE" WILSON RECOVERS THE ROSARIO MINES.

Judge Bordwell Decides Suit Involving Property in Mexico Supposed to be of Great Value—Rancher Helm Tells on Witness Stand How He Killed Japanese Laborer.

"Don Jose" Wilson has won his contest for possession of the La Fortuna gold mines, and under the opinion handed down yesterday by Judge Bordwell, La Fortuna Gold and Silver Mining Company of Arizona will convey back the property, and failing to do so, the clerk of the court is instructed to do so.

The several mining claims involved are close to the Rosario property belonging to the Bradshaw family, and thereon La Fortuna Gold and Silver Mining Company of Arizona is located in the State of Sinaloa, Mex., and has been undeveloped in the modern sense they were worked in the olden days and are reputed to be of a great value.

The new company, known as the named Wilson first gained possession of the properties—Don Jose, as he is known, and he came to California to market his find.

He made a contract with one Goldman in San Francisco, and under its terms a corporation was to be formed to which Don Jose was to make a deed of the properties, this deed to be placed in escrow until the purchase price of $10,000 cash and 25 per cent. of the capital stock of the new company should be made over to him. An agent was sent down and he reported satisfactorily.

This was done in April, 1922, at the trial of the case Neilman and his son sought to show that Don Jose under stood to the violation of the contract, but Judge Bordwell says that he is satisfied that such was not the case.

Notwithstanding that the deed was filed for record in Mexico in direct violation of the contract, the defendants claimed that they owned the mines clear of all claims by Wilson.

The court holds that this is an infringement of the contract, and that the defendant is entitled to relief at the hands of a court of equity.

The court also holds that the defendants cannot recover any of the moneys they have expended for the reason that their conduct was a repudiation of all the obligations of the contract; much of their expenses having been incurred with no intention of recovering, but with no intention of restoring or anything.

A rather odd point in this complicated case is that A. D. Warner, the attorney who championed the cause of Wilson, is badly left by the finding of the court, though his client wins. In the original complaint it was alleged that after the break with Neilman, Don Jose made a contract with A. M. Laddington, and she organized the Luddington Exploration Company. After a brief existence, this company was sold out at Sheriff's sale in this city and Adam Dixon Warner bought in pretty much all of the company that there was in it.

The court holds that the defendant did not show that any such contract was made by Don Jose to Mrs. Laddington, and as far as the exploration company is concerned it is non-suited and knocked out of court.

WANTS LOTS BACK.
ACCUSER WIFE OF TRICKERY.

There is trouble in the household of Job B. Stockton at Gardena, and he has begun suit against his wife to set aside the deed he gave her. Husband and wife had talked over their affairs, and how they might be so arranged that in the event of his decease the property might not be eaten up by administration expenses. In July, 1931, it was agreed by the husband and wife that if he would deed the five large lots he owned at Gardena to her, and the delivery of the deed, that she would retain it in her personal custody until his death and then record it. On that understanding Job Stockton made a conveyance of his property to his wife, and both husband and wife settled back content, thinking that a lot of trouble and delay had been obviated.

But in November of the same year Mrs. Little placed the deed on record. She said nothing about what she had done at home, and her husband discovered what had been done only by accident a month later. Now he has brought suit to have the deed canceled, alleging that his wife had no interest in it whatever, that there was no consideration for it, and that she made her promise to him to refrain from recording it she had never intended to keep her word.

HOLDS THE WILL.
SISTER'S STRANGE ACTION.

A curious condition has arisen in the Probate Court by reason of Mrs. Elizabeth May Hahnemann, who resides at Highbury Hill, London, Eng., refusing to forward the last will of her brother for probate in this county, of which he was a resident and where he died.

Norman Dalton Garstin died on November 25, 1926, and left a will, the property consisting of stocks and bonds valued at about $23,000. He made a will while in this city, bearing date of January 21, 1927, and delivered it to his sister, W. C. Phillips, named in the will as one of the executors, has probable since the instrument was made but Attorney Frank James, the executor, consents to act and is the petitioner for probate.

Mr. James sets out that Mrs. Hahnemann refuses to forward the will and consequently a copy of the instrument was put in yesterday was short but pointed, and there being no rebuttal testimony, arguments began at once.

A large number of witnesses had been summoned to testify to Helm's character for peace and quiet, but the prosecution decided that there would be no question about that and a stipulation to that effect was made.

Dr. Smith of Pomona testified that Helm had been under his care for the past five years for heart trouble. He had found him to be very nervous and suffering from enlargement of the heart. He warned him against all excitement and violent exercises, telling him that an infraction of that rule might result in his death.

Helm then took the stand, and after answering several preliminary questions, made the following statement as to what took place on the night of the shooting:

"For weeks," said he, "I had made a practice of going into the orchard every evening with my shotgun. I would walk up and down along the front, stopping occasionally to listen. On this night (July 2) I stopped at the end of the rows of Valencia. I heard foot-steps. I stepped to one side and saw a man coming from the direction of the adobe at the fourth tree from the road and also the fourth tree from me. He came along the first tree bearing any Valencia on it and reached up to pluck the fruit. I called out: 'Halt, you fellows have been stealing oranges long enough,' and at that the man turned toward me and sprang forward as if to leap on me with upraised fists. I saw him draw a revolver and I fired as he dodged around a tree."

"Why did you shoot when he came at you?"

"Because he was stealing my fruit, and because he was about to make a vicious attack, and when he dodged around the tree I thought he would shoot at me."

"Why didn't you shoot when he came at you first?"

"If he had come within three feet," said Helm, "I could have blown him to atoms; but I didn't want to kill him."

Helm acknowledged that he had said to the Japs that he would shoot them if they came into his orchard, but he said that he had done that to intimidate them without really meaning it.

With the conclusion of the defendant's testimony the defense closed and arguments began.

IN POLICE COURT.
FINED FOR WIFE-BEATING.

J. A. Russell, whose wife runs a lodging house, was convicted yesterday of a charge of battery. In Justice Austin's court, the complaint having been made by Mrs. Russell.

She alleged that her spouse had come into her room shortly before midnight, after she had retired, and demanded that she go with him to a restaurant. She said he was under the influence of liquor, and that she would not have gone with him at that hour of the night, anyhow, but when she refused he dragged her from the bed, bumped her head against the wall, threw her on the floor and put his knee on her chest, and in other ways maltreated her.

It was quite a long story of family jags, of which this one was not the first, and Justice Austin sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $10 or serve thirty days in the City Jail.

Mrs. Anita McCrea was one of the sorry figures in the Police Court yesterday, having been arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct at the Imperial Cafe on the previous night. She was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve a like number of days in the City Jail. It is said that Mrs. McCrea is a woman of good family, but dissipation has estranged her from her own and nobody appeared to befriend her in her extremity.

SUIT ON PATENT RIGHTS.

Frank Walker and Reese Llewellyn of Los Angeles have brought an action for equity against Fred E. Morton of Pasadena, to prevent him manufacturing articles which they claim are made in violation of their patent rights. In October, 1929, and May, 1930, there were issued to Walker patents numbered 65,419 and 78,832, covering improvements in the use of a combination of soil-pipe drainage and venting fittings. The plaintiffs claim Morton has been making up their invention over a year without their consent, and without paying them royalty.

Hawthorne
There's a New Town Blossoming in the Suburbs

HAWTHORNE is the brightest, newest and most promising of all the new suburban tracts. Situated on the Redondo Railway, it occupies a commanding position on high mesa land. Every modern beauty has been given it by the engineers in charge of the platting. Beautiful ornamental gates span the spacious entrances. A wide boulevard opens up into an imposing circle surrounding an ever-green plaza, planted to flowers and shrubs. Stately highways, with cement curbs and sidewalks, radiate from the plaza. Water will be piped to every lot. It is the intention to make the town of Hawthorne one of the most pleasing and picturesque around Los Angeles. Lots are going rapidly. The present price is scarcely a hint of future value. Every home-builder and every investor, large or small, is urged to secure a lot in Hawthorne while prices and terms are so low.

Market Receipts Show
Wonderful Year.

Season for the Men
Who Know Beans.

It is a happy season for the men who know beans. The crop around Los Angeles is the best ever produced. Last year's crop was a large percentage of the present year's. A Times reporter recently receiving heavy receipts at the market—and at every market in the same great rush of produce—was able to find the market of new beans sold to the trade. The market of old beans, tomatoes, etc., was considerably lower. The big packing companies had secured a good stock prior to the unfavorable weather. THIEVES STILL AT IT.
Burglaries of Every Degree Reported to the Police, from Gold to Four Blooded Pups.
The following thefts were reported to the police yesterday: The cash drawer of the Scofield millinery on South Broadway broken open Tuesday evening and rifled of $64.
House of Mrs. Pauline Dorrance, No. 444 Marmon Way, entered Tuesday afternoon and five valuable rings and three stick-pins stolen.
Residence of H. Schmidt, No. 1317 West Pico, broken into the same afternoon; gold watch stolen.
George Lang reports a lot of clothing and a cheap watch stolen from his room on 22 West First street.
T. F. Walsh had a lot of clothing and personal belongings stolen from his room at 22 West First street.
Ingraham Brothers, Eighteenth and Main streets, report the theft of a black mare during Tuesday night.
L. M. Judy of Marathon avenue reports a rather unusual case, in which four blooded bull-pups were stolen from his place.

SET BOULEVARD
THROUGH TO PLAZA.
It is the belief that this time the enterprise will go through, as the general awakening in the north and northwestern part of the city has been conducive to a change in sentiment on the part of many who heretofore have stood in the way of the plans.
With the opening of this fine wide boulevard directly through to the Plaza, it is believed that it will become a very popular thoroughfare, and that properties in the district will advance in valuation at a much more rapid rate than heretofore.
The changes are to be paid for through an assessment on a large district, so that it will not be burdensome to any one property owner. The district will reach as far south as Third street in the downtown district, and will reach out a considerable distance on both sides of the boulevard in the outside neighborhoods.
Brooklyn Heights is growing so rapidly as to find it inconvenient, in some ways. A public meeting is to be held within a few days by citizens of the central part of the Brooklyn Heights section to voice their wants, the main one of which appears to be better sewer service.
There is a movement on foot to bring about an extensive series of street improvements in the territory lying to the north of Brooklyn avenue, and between Chicago street and Echania street.

An Investment That Is Guaranteed by First Mortgage on Gilt Edge California Real Estate

An Industrial Enterprise That Pays 6 Per Cent. Per Annum, and Whose Dividends and Stock Advance Will Make the Investor Big Money—Insured Against Loss

The Cement and Iron Manufacturing Company owns more than 4000 acres of land, including the best cement, clay and stone deposits on the Coast. It has one plant all ready for operation in Northern California and is now marketing this stock to equip a plant not far from Los Angeles. In addition to vast deposits from which an unlimited supply of the very best cement will be made, the company owns without a dollar of indebtedness one of the largest iron deposits in the west (in the form of a solid mountain of iron); also more than 18 ledges of copper, one 26x4500 feet; another 30x 2000 feet, assaying high in copper, gold and silver. One other smaller ledge assaying as high as $2000 per ton. All this, and other gilt-edge California real estate, is behind the stock issue as a positive guarantee against loss in the form of mortgages in the name of the investor, bearing 6 per cent. after three years, will be redeemed if the investor is not satisfied. The most conservative industrial investment on the market today. The most searching inquiry into the proposition is courted.

An Unlimited Market For Its Products

Cement is used more than any one single material in modern building. It has proven itself better, cheaper and infinitely more durable than any known substance. Witness the great number of immense business buildings, miles and miles of cement curbs, walks, gutters, etc., bulkheads, canals and every place where strength and long life are necessary, the modern builder turns to the cement manufacturer for his only relief. The tremendous demand keeps the market in a healthy, profitable condition to any firm fortunate enough to possess a proven and high-grade deposit, and whose equipment is sufficient to meet this demand. This plant will be near Los Angeles, with splendid transportation facilities, and if you want a gilt-edge security we can show you where our proposition will not only make you money, but be absolutely secure, for we wish to repeat that we guarantee it by first mortgages on California real estate—the security made in your own name, and will redeem the stock if you are not satisfied.

SEVEN ROOMS
ONLY LEFT.

Downtown Hotels Filled Last Night, and Still They're Rushing in.

The tide of tourist travel still continues unabated. Every train brings in more people, and the hotels are hard put to it to accommodate the great numbers that are flying from the snows and winds of the East.

In the downtown district there is hardly room for another person. Rooms with baths have not been procurable for two or three days, and now any kind of a room is hard to find. At mid-night there were only seven rooms to be had at all the prominent hotels combined, and one or two of those were reserved by guests coming on late trains. At three hotels people were turned away, and people arriving on the San Francisco trains often had to go from one place to another to secure satisfactory accommodations.

The hotels in the western part of the city are equally full, and the smaller boarding and lodging-houses have their capacity exhausted. Hotel men say that for so early in the season the rush is phenomenal, especially as this condition has not been induced by excursions, special rates or anything of that kind, but is simply the steady and overwhelming pressure caused by eastern people escaping the East.

SOUGHT ALWAYS TO HELP OTHERS.DEATH AT RIVERBIDE OF MISS
MABEL F. PAYTON.

Was Probably the Most Universally Loved Student Who Ever Attended University of Southern California. Faculty Will Attend Funeral—Public Memorial Service Tomorrow.

Mabel F. Payton, one of the most popular girls who have ever attended the University of Southern California, died yesterday morning at the home of her father, Dr. W. B. Payton, in Riverside, of typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of three weeks.

Miss Payton was a prominent member of the Alpha Epsilon Sorority, and had always taken an active interest in the various departments of college work. She was especially successful in basketball, being considered the best player in the position of forward in the Basketball League.

A native of Greentown, Ind., she came to Riverside in 1920 with her parents. After completing three years' study in Riverside High School she entered the senior class of the Academy of the University in the fall of 1923, graduating the following June with high honors. She continued her studies in the College of Liberal Arts and would have completed the four years' course next year.

Throughout the years that she had been a student at the University, she seemed to have the one ambition to make others happy. No sacrifice was too great for her to make for a fellow student; no service too difficult, but that she would volunteer to perform it if by so doing some burden would be lifted from the shoulders of another. And in such matters she did not discriminate as between those who were closely associated with her, but to all with whom she came in contact she constantly and unostentatiously sought to impart some ray of joy from her own sunny life. It was these spontaneous little services which have won her a circle of friends such as perhaps no other student in the great Methodist institution possessed. In it were included the instructors, the employees, the members of other classes and societies, the very neighbors in short all who knew her.

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Inwood of Riverside and President Boyard of the University in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Riverside, today at 11 a.m. The University will be represented by Prof. Best, Morgan, Wright and Northwick from the faculty, also a committee of three, Messrs. Malcom and Henderson and Miss Lelia Webster, on behalf of the student body. The college will be dismissed at 10 a.m. today and Friday morning public memorial exercises will be held in the college chapel.

CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS.

State Conference is to Open in Simpson Auditorium This Afternoon.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the fourth State Conference of Charities and Corrections will begin its sessions at Simpson Auditorium. This is the first time that the conference has been held in the southern part of the State. Two were held in San Francisco and one in Oakland.

Under the lead of Dr. Walter Lindley, chairman of the local committee of arrangements, all the charitable bodies of the city have taken part in the preparations, and a programme has been formed that represents nearly every side of charitable endeavor. The object of the conference is to promote better appreciation of the problems that confront the public and
